WRIGLEY FIELD
100 YEARS 1914-2014

The 2014 Cubs season marks the 100th anniversary of Wrigley Field's inaugural campaign in 1914, when it was known as Weeghman Park and hosted the Federal League's Chicago Federals ... this marks the 99th season the Cubs have called Wrigley Field home ... Wrigley Field is the second-oldest ballpark in the major leagues, behind Boston's Fenway Park (1912).

- The Friendly Confines has been the location of such historic moments as:
  - Babe Ruth's "called shot," when Ruth allegedly pointed to a bleacher location during Game 3 of the 1932 World Series ... Ruth then hit Charlie Root's next pitch for a homer.
  - Gabby Hartnett's famous "Homer in the Gloamin'" September 28, 1938, off Pittsburgh's Mace Brown.
  - The great May 2, 1917, pitching duel between Jim "Hippo" Vaughn and the Reds Fred Toney ... both Vaughn and Toney threw no-hitters for 9.0 innings before Cincinnati's Jim Thorpe (of Olympic fame) drove in the only run in the 10th inning ... Toney finished with a no-hitter.
  - Ernie Banks' 500th career home run May 12, 1970, vs. Atlanta's Pat Jarvis.
  - Pete Rose's 4,191st career hit, which tied him with Ty Cobb for the most hits in baseball history ... Rose singled off Reggie Patterson September 8, 1985.
  - Kerry Wood's 20-strikeout affair in 1998.
  - Sammy Sosa's 60th home runs in 1998, 1999 and 2001.
  - Greg Maddux's 3,000th career strikeout July 26, 2005.
  - Tom Glavine's 300th career victory August 5, 2007.
  - The 1947, 1962 and 1990 All-Star Games.

Originally known as Weeghman Park, Wrigley Field was built on the grounds once occupied by a seminary.

- Weeghman Park was the home of Chicago's entry into the Federal League and was the property of Charles H. Weeghman ... the club was known as both the Federals and the Whales.
- The cost of building Weeghman Park, which had a seating capacity of 14,000, was estimated at $250,000 ... the infield and outfield consisted of more than 4,000 yards of soil and four acres of bluegrass.
- The first major league game at the ballpark took place April 23, 1914, with the Federals defeating Kansas City 9-1 ... the first homer in ballpark history was hit by Federals catcher Art Wilson – a two-run shot in the second inning off Kansas City's Chief Johnson.
- When the Federal League folded for financial reasons after the 1915 campaign, Weeghman purchased the Cubs from the Taft family of Cincinnati and moved the club to the two-year-old ballpark at the corners of Clark and Addison streets.
- The first National League game at the ballpark was played April 20, 1916, when the Cubs beat the Cincinnati Reds 7-6 in 11 innings ... a bear cub was in attendance at the game.
- The park became known as Cubs Park in 1919, following the resignation of Charles Weeghman as team president at the December 1918 board of Directors meeting - shortly after William Wrigley Jr. had assumed the title as largest stockholder in the club ... in 1926, with Mr. Wrigley owning more than 50 percent of the team stock and having purchased the land of the park in 1924, the field was renamed Wrigley Field.

The original vines were purchased and planted by Bill Veeck in September 1937 ... Veeck strung bittersweet from the top of the wall to the bottom, then planted the ivy at the base of the wall.

- Ernie Banks' uniform number (14) is imprinted on the flag which flies from atop the left field foul pole, directly above Ron Santo's No. 10 and Fergie Jenkins' No. 31 ... Ryne Sandberg's No. 23, Billy Williams' No. 26 and Greg Maddux' No. 31 fly from the right field foul pole.

The Wrigley Field bleachers and scoreboard were constructed in 1937 when the outfield area was renovated to provide improved and expanded seating ... the original scoreboard remains intact.

- The score-by-innings and the pitchers' numbers are changed by hand ... the numbers signaling batter, ball, strike and out, along with "H" and "E" – to signify hit and error – are eyelets.
- No batted ball has ever hit the center field scoreboard ... two baseballs barely missed – a homer hit onto Sheffield Avenue (right-center) by Bill Nicholson in 1948, and one hit by Roberto Clemente onto Waveland Avenue (left-center) in 1959.
- One of the traditions of Wrigley Field is the flying of a flag bearing a "W" or an "L" atop the scoreboard after a game ... a white flag with a blue "W" indicates a victory; a blue flag with a white "L" denotes a loss.

Wrigley Field added lights in 1988.

- The first night game took place August 8 against Philadelphia, with Rick Sutcliffe on the mound, but was rained out in the fourth inning.
- The first official night game occurred August 9 vs. New York, when the Cubs defeated the Mets 6-4.
- In 2014, Wrigley Field will celebrate its 27th year of night baseball.
  - The Cubs entered the 2014 season having played 538 home night contests (going 266-272).

Wrigley Field has been the site of numerous construction projects since 2005.

- Following the 2005 season, the Cubs expanded the bleachers, adding a restaurant in the batter's eye and a window to Sheffield Avenue in right field.
- In the winter of 2007, Wrigley underwent a major field renovation project to remove the field's crown, install an intricate drainage system and create a new playing surface.
- The beautification of the Wrigley Field campus also included the installation of personalized pavers beginning near the corner of Sheffield and Addison, running down Addison Street towards Clark Street and the Wrigley Field marquee.
- Prior to the 2010 season, the back of the centerfield scoreboard was fully renovated for the first time since it was installed in 1937 ... restrooms were remodeled and fitted with new fixtures, a new viewing plaza was created adjacent to the indoor batting cage to provide fans the opportunity to watch batting practice and the PNC Club was added to the mezzanine suites down the left field line.
- Prior to the 2012 campaign, the right field bleachers were transformed to the Budweiser Patio ... the area provides fans with a rooftop experience inside the ballpark, and adds a 75-foot LED board just above the right field fence.

Lakeview Efforts
The Cubs work hard to communicate with those who live and work in the communities around the ballpark. The team actively participates in preserving and enhancing the quality of life for Lakeview residents, as well as providing events and activities that contribute to the unique and diverse fabric of the neighborhood and generate increased business for the area.

In 2013, Cubs Charities launched signature programs to address the needs of Chicago's youth and to reflect our commitment to baseball, health, fitness and education in communities throughout Chicago.

Cubs Scholars
The Cubs Scholars Program launched in 2013 with an inaugural class of five scholars. The program aims to offer quality scholarship and financial contributions for Chicago inner-city high school students, coupled with a program designed to promote academic achievement and encourage post-secondary educational advancement.

The Cubs Scholars Program rewards both individual students and the non-profit organizations which support their development. It provides college scholarships to high achievers and grants to the nonprofit programs which nominate and support them.

Each of the five Cubs Scholars will receive a four-year college scholarship of $5,000 per year upon their enrollment in a four-year college or university. In addition, the Cubs Scholars will participate in Cubs College Prep throughout their senior year of high school and into college. Cubs College Prep partners each Cubs Scholar with a Cubs Front Office Associate mentor who will work with them through their senior year and in the transition to college. This program of mentoring, leadership and continued support will offer an educational, motivational and social experience with events like career days with Cubs Associates, corporate partner career seminars and tours, motivational seminars with Cubs alumni and executives and social events such as Cubs games and on-field recognition ceremonies.

In addition to Cubs College Prep, Cubs Charities will sponsor each of the five Cubs Scholars in a one-year college preparation program offered by Chicago Scholars, an established mentoring program serving inner-city children. Students in the Chicago Scholars program have a 95% college graduation rate. The program includes seminars, workshops and mentoring designed to prepare each student for college success. Importantly, Chicago Scholars tracks students and offers established curriculum for measuring success and keeping students on track towards college graduation. Cubs Scholars will continue participating in Chicago Scholars' program throughout their four years of college to maximize their chances for college graduation.

Cubs on the Move Fitness Trolley
The Cubs and Cubs Charities are committed to improving the health of Chicago's inner city children. To help address the increasing obesity problem and to promote fitness overall, Cubs Charities developed the Cubs on the Move Fitness Trolley to promote a fitness plan and healthy eating campaign, and encourage kids to "Play Every Day." The mission of the Cubs on the Move Fitness Trolley is to get kids active and healthy.

In 2013, more than 300 children from four schools across the city of Chicago participated in the Cubs on the Move Fitness Trolley, which motivates youth to "Play Every Day." The students participated in group exercise led by Chicago Athletic Clubs and learned basic baseball skills through Cubs non-profit partner, Urban Initiatives at four select elementary schools: Tarkington School in Marquette Park, Gunsaulus School in Brighton Park, Otis Elementary in West Town and Lloyd School in Cragin using the Cubs Trolley for transportation, music and activation. Cubs on the Move Fitness Trolley participants received water from Aquafina and a nutritious snack every visit supplied by Testa Produce.

The Cubs on the Move Fitness Trolley brought together Cubs Associates, Cubs corporate partners, Cubs philanthropic partners, Cubs ownership and Cubs players to impact the health of kids in the Chicago community.

Kids who followed the Cubs on the Move Fitness Trolley plan and monitored their exercise schedule through weekly fitness logs were rewarded with a trip to a Cubs game and honored on Wrigley Field prior to a game.

Cubs Charities Diamond Project

A thriving community is a healthy community — one that offers youth the chance to play, supports the civic spirit of sportsmanship and embraces elders as coaches, mentors and allies. Local athletic fields make it happen.

The Cubs Charities Diamond Project will launch in 2014 in order to expand opportunities for children to play baseball, create or preserve green space in underserved neighborhoods and to foster a love of the game. Through the Diamond Project, Cubs Charities provides funds to non-profit, neighborhood-based organizations to support capital improvement projects that improve the quality, safety and accessibility of local baseball fields or indoor training facilities with the technical assistance of Local Initiatives Support Corporation (LISC) Chicago.

Cubs Charities Diamond Project grant resources fall into the following categories:

- Field Surface Grants: to help finance the resurfacing of baseball fields.
- Indoor Training Amenities: to equip gymnasiums or facilities with amenities that will allow for indoor play and baseball skills training during the offseason.
- General Field/Stadium Support: for capital projects not associated with the actual field.

Cubs Care

In 2013, Cubs Charities and Cubs Care, a fund of the McCormick Foundation, provided charitable grants of more than $2.3 million to deserving area non-profit organizations that provide youth sports, health and fitness and youth education programming in Chicago.

Youth and Special Needs Baseball

McCormick Foundation's Cubs Care grants support organizations committed to bringing quality sports programming to the children of Chicago. Each year, more than 12,000 children and young adults participate in sports programs supported by Cubs Care grants.

Examples of programs funded through Cubs Care include:

Rookie League - A partnership with the Chicago Park District, Rookie League is an introductory league for six to 12 year olds. The league has grown to 96 locations with 521 teams across Chicago. Each year, more than 8,000 children from neighborhoods throughout the city can participate in the program free of charge.

Inner City Youth Baseball - Inner City Youth Baseball provides recreational activities for more than 360 kids, ages nine to 12, who live in Chicago Housing Authority developments and scattered site housing throughout Chicago. The program is operated in partnership with the Chicago Park District. It also helps encourage participation of African Americans in baseball by exposing African American youth to the game.

Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities (RBI) - The Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) program of the Union League Boys & Girls Clubs of Chicago reaches approximately 300 mostly minority teens ages 13 to 18 living in some of the poorest communities in Chicago. Grants typically cover all programs costs so the league can provide equipment, uniforms, and instruction at no cost to the participants. The Cubs RBI Junior All-Star team appeared in the RBI World Series in 2013.

RBI Girls' Softball - The RBI Girls' Softball program aims to expose girls, ages 11 through 14, to competitive league play. The program was piloted in 2010 with four teams and was so well received the league has now expanded to eight teams with more than 100 participants. A grant awarded by Cubs Care helped create more opportunities for young girls interested by softball.

Girls In The Game - Girls in the Game provides and promotes sports and fitness, health education and leadership development to enhance the overall well-being of girls. Girls in the Game uses sports to teach girls the important life lessons of teamwork, voice, leadership, confidence and healthy choices. Grants from Cubs Care help expand the organization's direct service and provide increased weekend and school break programming.

Special Recreation Programs - The Chicago Park District's Special Recreation programs are geared towards helping children and adults with special needs. These programs include Beep Baseball for the visually impaired, Buddy Baseball for the physically challenged, Deaf & Hard of Hearing Softball for the hearing impaired and Alternative Athletic Conference (AAC) softball for those with learning/behavioral problems.

Wheelchair Cubs - The Cubs support the RIC Caring for Kids program which provides introductory sports and recreation programs for children with physical disabilities in the greater Chicagoland area. RIC uses the Cubs Care grants to support its competitive wheelchair softball teams and fund two adaptive summer camps in 2013 to help promote independence.

African American Outreach

In addition to the team's efforts to increase the participation of African American youth in baseball through the team's RBI program, the Cubs are stepping up their efforts to strengthen their relationships in the African American community.

The Cubs hosted Jackie Robinson Day at Wrigley Field in conjunction with the movie premier of the Jackie Robinson biopic '42.' The Cubs also participated in Real Men Cook on the South side and the Bud Billiken back-to-school parade to promote education. The Cubs are ongoing sponsors of the Chicago Football Classic and Black Ensemble Theater. Last winter, the Cubs donated toys during the holidays on the South and West sides of Chicago to hundreds of children and families in need.

Hispanic Outreach

The Cubs relationships with charitable organizations and programs serving Latino communities throughout the area, and around the world, are growing. Last summer, the Cubs participated in Festival Cubano, one of the largest Hispanic festivals in Chicago. In September 2013, the Cubs celebrated Hispanic Heritage month by hosting a Roberto Clemente Day reception for Hispanic business, civic and community leaders across Chicago.

Dominican Republic

Last May, following the opening of the Cubs new baseball academy in the Dominican Republic, Cubs Charities contributed $20,000 to build a new playground in Hato Viejo III.

LosCubs.com

LosCubs.com provides Spanish-speaking fans with up-to-date news, team information, game recaps and exclusive player profiles and stories in Spanish.

On the Radio

More than 40 Cubs games are broadcast in Spanish on WRTO-AM 1200, and made available on television via SAP.

Spring Training Ushers in Cubs Park and a Brand New Facility

Spring Training 2014 marks the debut of a new complex in Mesa, Ariz., that will house both the Cubs major league and minor league spring operations in February and March, and will be utilized year-round by the organization. The complex consists of Cubs Park, a brand-new major league facility that will host Cubs Spring Training games and numerous minor league contests throughout the year, and modern practice fields and facilities spread over 142 acres.

- The complex is located on the former Riverview Golf Course, and is bordered by the 101 and 202 interchange in Mesa.
- The complex replaces both Mesa's Fitch Park and "new" HoHoKam Stadium, which housed Cubs Spring Training operations from 1997-2013.
  - For comparison, the new 142-acre Spring Training complex is nearly twice as large as the 79 combined acres between Fitch Park and HoHoKam Stadium.
- This marks the 36th consecutive Spring Training that the Cubs will spend in Mesa, dating to 1979 ... it is the organization's second stint in Mesa, as the Cubs trained there from 1952-65.
- The Cubs new complex features 16 batting tunnels, including 12 indoors, and 22 pitching mounds. The former Fitch Park, where the Cubs began Spring Training prior to the start of the Catcus League schedule, had eight pitching mounds and four batting tunnels.
  - Additionally, the complex features Cubs Park, a 15,000-capacity stadium, as well as four practice fields, two major league fields and a half-sized field.
- The 70,000-square foot main building houses Cubs offices, both major and minor league clubhouses, a 7,500-square foot workout facility, training facilities including a hydrotherapy room and a 120-seat theater.

The Ricketts family has management control of the joint venture as its 95 percent owner. Tribune retains a five-percent ownership interest.

On October 6, 2009, Major League Baseball owners unanimously approved the transaction by a vote of 29-0.

Prior to the Ricketts family, the Cubs had only two owners in the last 90 years, including 62 years of family ownership starting in 1919 when William Wrigley, Jr. purchased the franchise. In 1932, Philip K. Wrigley took control upon his father's death. In 1977, William Wrigley took over the club following the passing of his father, Philip, before selling to the Tribune Company four years later in 1981.

1882 .....Albert Spalding and John Walsh ... Spalding — the former player, sporting goods tycoon and team president — and Walsh took over after the death of William A. Hulbert
1905 .....Charles Murphy ... Murphy's $125,000 purchase price was financed by Cincinnati Times-Star owner Charles Taft

1916 Charles Weeghman ... a team owner in the defunct Federal League, Weeghman and nine others purchased the Cubs from Taft and moved the club to Weeghman Park at the corner of Clark and Addison
1919 .....Wrigley family ... William Wrigley Jr. purchased control of the team from Weeghman and renamed Weeghman Park to Cubs Park. In 1926, the ballpark's name was changed to Wrigley Field. Philip K. Wrigley took over in 1932 and William Wrigley took control in 1977.

CUBS FROM JAPAN

The Cubs have had four Japanese-born players in their 138-season history: outfielders Kosuke Fukudome and So Taguchi, right-handed pitcher Kyuji Fujikawa and left-handed pitcher Hisanori Takahashi.

Fukudome made his Cubs debut, March 31, 2008 vs. Milwaukee (went 3-for-3 with a double, home run and three RBI), becoming the first Japanese-born Cub. He went on to appear in 513 games for Chicago, spanning four seasons from 2008-11. Taguchi played in six games for Chicago during the 2009 campaign.

Fujikawa pitched in 12 games for Chicago in 2013 before missing the season's final four months due to an elbow injury that necessistated Tommy John surgery. Takahashi made the 2013 club out of Spring Training after signing a minor league deal with the organization. He pitched in three April games for Chicago before he was designated for assignment.

At least three other Japanese-born major leaguers have spent time in the Cubs system through 2013, but did not play in a big league game as a Chicago Cub. Steven Randolph (born in Okinawa) was acquired by the Cubs from the Diamondbacks in mid-January 2005, but was released in April of that year. Keith McDonald (born in Kokosuka) signed a minor league contract with the Cubs in November 2002, he played six games for the Cardinals in 2000 and 2001. Hideo Nomo was in the Cubs minor league system for three weeks in April 1999. Ken Kadokura was signed to a minor league contract with an invitation to Spring Training in 2009, but did not appear with the Cubs in the regular season.

CUBS OWNERSHIP HISTORY

On August 21, 2009, the Ricketts family signed a definitive agreement with Tribune Company to acquire a 95 percent interest in the Chicago Cubs National League Baseball Club, Wrigley Field and Tribune Company's approximately 25 percent interest in Comcast SportsNet (CSN) in a transaction valued at $845 million. The Ricketts family has management control of the joint venture as its 95 percent owner. Tribune retains a five-percent ownership interest.

On October 6, 2009, Major League Baseball owners unanimously approved the transaction by a vote of 29-0.

When the transaction closed October 27, 2009, the Ricketts family became only the eighth owner of the Chicago Cubs since the franchise's inception 133 years prior in 1876 when William A. Hulbert began as the club's first owner. Prior to the Ricketts family, the Cubs had only two owners in the last 90 years, including 62 years of family ownership starting in 1919 when William Wrigley, Jr. purchased the franchise. In 1932, Philip K. Wrigley took control upon his father's death. In 1977, William Wrigley took over the club following the passing of his father, Philip, before selling to the Tribune Company four years later in 1981.

Below is a complete list of Chicago Cubs owners prior to the Ricketts family:

Year.....Owner
1876 .....William A. Hulbert ... owned the Chicago White Stockings and became one of eight charter members of the National League
1882 .....Albert Spalding and John Walsh ... Spalding – the former player, sporting goods tycoon and team president – and Walsh took over after the death of William A. Hulbert
1905 .....Charles Murphy ... Murphy's $125,000 purchase price was financed by Cincinnati Times-Star owner Charles Taft
1914 .....Charles Taft ... Taft bought the Cubs from Charles Murphy
1916 Charles Weeghman ... a team owner in the defunct Federal League, Weeghman and nine others purchased the Cubs from Taft and moved the club to Weeghman Park at the corner of Clark and Addison
1919 .....Wrigley family ... William Wrigley Jr. purchased control of the team from Weeghman and renamed Weeghman Park to Cubs Park. In 1926, the ballpark's name was changed to Wrigley Field. Philip K. Wrigley took over in 1932 and William Wrigley took control in 1977.
1981 .....The Tribune Company ... the Tribune's purchase of the Cubs and the Friendly Confines from the Wrigley family ended the longest continuous operation of a franchise by the same family in one city.

RECORD BREAKERS AT THE GATES

In 2008, the Chicago Cubs set a single-season attendance record by drawing 3,300,200 fans at Wrigley Field, eclipsing the previous record mark of 3,252,462 set in 2007.

In addition to setting a Wrigley Field record, the 3,300,200 is the largest single-season attendance mark for any franchise or venue in the history of the city of Chicago.

The Cubs reached three million fans on September 2, faster than any other season in franchise history, as that night's crowd of 39,846 vs. the Houston Astros brought the Cubs and Wrigley Field beyond the three million mark in the club's 74th home date of 2008, surpassing the previous record of 75 home dates to three million fans in 2007.

TRIPLE PLAYS – LAST TIME IT HAPPENED

The Cubs have been involved in 76 triple plays since 1876, turning 40 and hitting into 36. The Cubs have hit into the last three triple plays they've been involved in (most recently May 14, 2000, at Montreal).

On May 10, 1997, in San Francisco, the Cubs turned their last triple play. The Giants' Stan Javier faced Amaury Telemaco in the fifth inning with Kirk Rueter on second base and Darryl Hamilton on first. Javier hit a fly ball to short center field, with second base umpire Bob Davidson invoking the infield fly rule. The ball dropped in, and both baserunners were thrown out attempting to advance (center fielder Brian McRae to third baseman Jose Hernandez to second baseman Ryne Sandberg).

The last triple play turned at Wrigley Field was by San Francisco on May 8, 1998 (first baseman Charlie Hayes to shortstop Rich Aurilia). The last time the Cubs turned a triple play at The Friendly Confines occurred June 2, 1983, vs. Pittsburgh – when Pirates pitcher Rick Rhoden hit into an around-the-horn triple killing (third baseman Ron Cey to second baseman Ryne Sandberg to first baseman Bill Buckner).

On May 30, 1927, shortstop Jimmy Cooney turned the only unassisted triple play in Cubs history. In the fourth inning of the Cubs' game in Pittsburgh, Cooney caught Paul Waner's line drive, stepped on second base to retire Lloyd Waner, then tagged Clyde Barnhart off first.

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME

The Cubs won 16 consecutive games Jon Lieber started at Wrigley Field from May 24, 2001-May 6, 2002. He had a personal 13-0 mark over the 16-start span.

The stretch is tied for the longest winning span for a pitcher at Wrigley Field since the ballpark was built in 1914. The club previously won 16-straight Lon Warneke starts May 27, 1932-April 18, 1933 (Warneke went 13-0 at home over the span).

The ballpark record for consecutive victories by an individual is 15, set by Bill Lee from September 7, 1935-August 26, 1936 (17 starts).

32 IS THE MAGIC NUMBER

The Cubs have had four starting pitchers make 32 or more starts in a season just three times since 1901. Most recently, the 2007 squad accomplished the feat when Ted Lilly and Carlos Zambrano made 34 starts apiece while Jason Marquis started 33 games and Rich Hill started 32 contests.

Prior to 2007, the last time Chicago had four starters with at least 32 outings apiece was in 1977 when Ray Burris (39), Rick Reuschel (37), Bill Bonham (34) and Mike Krukow (33) turned the trick. In 1975, Reuschel (37), Bonham (36), Burris (35) and Steve Stone (32) teamed up to accomplish the feat.

GETTING OFF TO A GOOD START

Carlos Silva began the 2010 campaign with an 8-0 record, becoming the first Cubs starter to win his first five decisions since Greg Maddux began the 2006 season with a 5-0 record.

The last Cubs starter to open the year with a winning streak longer than Silva's eight-game run was Kenny Holtzman, who went 9-0 during the 1967 season. That was the best season start for a Cub since Jim McCormick won his first 16 decisions in 1886.

MATT SZCZUR'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

2010 – Selected by Cubs in fifth round of draft (scout: Tim Adkins)

DOUBLE DOWN

The Cubs hit a club-record 340 doubles in a season twice in club annals – 1931 and 2007. In 2007, the club averaged 2.1 doubles per contest while the 1931 squad averaged 2.2 doubles over the 154-game schedule.

In 2008, three Cubs – Aramis Ramirez (44 doubles), Derrek Lee (41) and Geovany Soto (35) – had 35 or more doubles. It marked the ninth time since 1901 that three Cubs amassed 35 or more doubles in the same season. The 120 doubles between them was tied for the third-highest total of any Cubs threesome (in 2007, Derrek Lee had 43, Alfonso Soriano had 42 and Aramis Ramirez had 35), and the most since the 1932 trio of Riggs Stephenson (49), Charlie Grimm (42) and Billy Herman (42) collected a club-record 133 doubles. In 1930, Kiki Cuyler (50), Woody English (36) and Hack Wilson (35) combined for 121 doubles.

Chicago has reached 300 doubles in a season nine times, including five of the last 11 seasons entering the 2013 campaign.

PINCH-HITTER DEFINITION

A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. RUNS SCORED – RUNS ALLOWED

The Cubs mark for scoring in consecutive games is 127, set from June 15, 1958-May 13, 1959. The team record for scoring in consecutive contests in one season is 109, set in 1943 (May 23-September 18).

The longest streak for Cubs pitchers without hurling a shutout is 106 games, set in 1901 (May 18-September 20).

On June 29, 1897, the Cubs scored at least one run in every inning in a 36-7 victory at Louisville. That was the only time in club history that the team scored at least one run in every frame. The last time the Cubs surrendered at least one run in every inning took place May 5, 1999, vs. Colorado at Wrigley Field.

Since 1900, the Cubs have thrown three consecutive shutouts seven times, with the last occurrence taking place July 21-July 24, 1992 – when the Cubs won 1-0 and 3-0 at Cincinnati and 1-0 at Houston.

The last time the Cubs threw shutouts in both games of a doubleheader occurred July 11, 1965, vs. St. Louis at Wrigley Field (identical 6-0 scores).

The Cubs were held scoreless in a National League-record 48 consecutive innings June 15-June 21, 1968. The club was blanked in four straight games June 16-June 20.

The Cubs have allowed three or fewer runs in every contest of a three-game series in each of the last four seasons, including twice in 2013 (most recently July 26-28 at San Francisco) and six times in 2012. In 2010, the Cubs held the Marlins to three or fewer runs in their three-game set from September 17-19; that was part of an 11-game stretch in which Cubs pitchers allowed three or less runs in each contest from September 10-22.

The last time the Cubs allowed three runs or fewer during a Wrigley Field three-game set occurred May 26-28, 2008 vs. Los Angeles (N.L.) (3-1, 3-1, 2-1 (10)).

From July 5-July 7, 2001, the Cubs scored 38 runs over a three-game span – winning by scores of 13-4 at New York and 15-9 and 10-6 at Detroit. Over the three -game span, the Cubs recorded 50 hits – including 21 for extra bases (12 doubles, four triples, five homers).

In 1930, the Cubs established a team record by reaching the 10-run plateau in five-straight games, June 1-June 6. During that stretch – the only time in club history that the team had a double-digit runs streak surpassing three games – the Cubs defeated Pittsburgh 16-4 on June 1 at Wrigley Field before going on a road trip. They swept the Boston Braves over a three-game span June 3-June 5 by scores of 15-2, 18-10 and 10-7, then went to Brooklyn and beat the Dodgers 13-0 on June 6.

During a 20-1 victory over Los Angeles (N.L.) May 5, 2001, the Cubs scored eight times during both the seventh and eighth innings. This was only the fifth time in major league history that a team plated at least eight runs in consecutive frames. The list:

April 30, 1887: St. Louis (N.L.) vs. Cleveland.....nine in fifth, eight in sixth
June 16, 1887: Philadelphia (N.L.) vs. Washington.....eight in seventh, eight in eighth
May 2, 1901: Boston (A.L.) vs. Philadelphia..... nine in second, 10 in third
July 29, 1928: Cleveland vs. New York..... eight in first, nine in second
May 5, 2001: CUBS vs. Los Angeles.....eight in seventh, eight in eighth

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team. In 2013, Anthony Rizzo was recognized as the Cubs recipient for this award.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award, sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Craig Biggio, Clayton Kershaw, Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, Cal Ripken, Jr., Albert Pujols and Derek Jeter.

SAVE RULE

Rule 10.20 tells the official scorer to credit a pitcher with a save when:
(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and; (2) he is not the winning pitcher, and; (3) he qualifies under the following conditions: (a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least 1.0 inning, or; (b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or; (c) he pitches effectively for at least 3.0 innings.

When a relief pitcher enters a game in a save situation and departs or the game ends with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead, he is charged with a "blown save." If the save opportunity still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

If the pitcher has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, though the save opportunity may no longer exist because of added runs scored by his own team, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

Earned Run Average — (ERx9)/IP: Earned runs multiplied by 9, then divided by innings pitched (0.1 innings = .333, 0.2 innings = .667).

Batting Average — H/AB: Hits divided by at-bats.

Slugging Percentage — TB/AB: Total number of bases (single = 1 base, double = 2 bases, triple = 3 bases, home run = 4 bases) divided by at-bats.

Fielding Average — (PO+A)/(PO+A+E): Putouts plus assists divided by total chances (putouts plus assists plus errors).

On-Base Percentage — (H+BB+HBP)/(AB+BB+HBP+SF): Hits plus walks plus hit-by-pitch divided by at-bats plus walks plus hit-by-pitch plus sacrifice flies.

Win-Loss Percentage: Number of games won divided by total games played.

Magic Numbers: Compute the number of games remaining, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

REVOLVING DOOR

A club-record 56 players were utilized by the Cubs during the 2013 campaign (25 position players, 31 pitchers). The 31 pitchers used in 2013 also set a team record.

The record for most players starting at any position in one season is 15, as the club utilized that total of starting pitchers in seven different campaigns (most recently 1990).

Besides pitchers, the Cubs single-year marks for players used at a position: eight catchers (1916, 1960), nine first basemen (1976), nine second basemen (1893), nine shortstops (1916), 10 third basemen (1902, 1957), 12 left fielders (five times, most recently 2000), 10 center fielders (1904) and 16 right fielders (1902).

2013 —	WILL MAKE DEBUT IN 2014

WELCOME TO THE BROOMTOWN

The last time the Cubs swept four consecutive series of any length took place in 1970, when the club won 11-straight contests from April 14-April 27:

April 14-15-16 — 3-game sweep vs. Philadelphia
April 17-18 — 2-game sweep vs. Montreal
April 24-25-26 — 3-game sweep vs. Houston
April 27 — Won first game of a series in Pittsburgh
April 21-22 — 2-game sweep vs. St. Louis

In 1935, the Cubs had a club-record 21-game winning streak from September 4-September 27. That streak also marked the last time the Cubs swept four straight series of at least three games. The breakdown:

Sept. 4-5-6-7 — 4-game sweep vs. Philadelphia
Sept. 9 (DH)-10-11 — 4-game sweep vs. Boston Braves
Sept. 12-13-14-15 — 4-game sweep vs. Brooklyn
Sept. 16-17-18-19 — 4-game sweep vs. N.Y. Giants

KKKKKKKKKKKKKKKKKKK

On May 6, 1998, in just his fifth big league start, Kerry Wood fanned 20 Houston Astros and allowed just one base hit in a complete-game 2-0 win at Wrigley Field ... allowed only two baserunners, giving up a single to Ricky Gutierrez in the third inning and hitting Craig Biggio in the sixth.

The 20 strikeouts:

- Tied the major league record for a nine-inning game set by Boston's Roger Clemens (April 29, 1986, and September 18, 1996).
- Eclipsed the National League record of 19 reached by Providence's Charlie Sweeney (June 7, 1884), St. Louis' Steve Carlton (September 15, 1969), New York's Tom Seaver (April 22, 1970) and New York's David Cone (October 6, 1991).
- Exceeded the M.L. rookie record of 18 strikeouts, which had been reached by the Philadelphia Athletics' Jack Coombs on September 1, 1906, and by Montreal's Bill Gullickson (against the Cubs) on September 10, 1980.
- Surpassed the Cubs mark of 17, set by Jack Pfiester in a 15-inning outing May 30, 1906, vs. St. Louis.

His inning-by-inning strikeouts:

- First inning — Craig Biggio (swinging), Derek Bell (swinging), Jeff Bagwell (called)
- Second — Jack Howell (swinging), Moises Alou (swinging)
- Third — Brad Ausmus (swinging)
- Fourth — Bagwell (called), Howell (called)
- Fifth — Alou (called), Dave Clark (called), Ricky Gutierrez (called)
- Sixth — Shane Reynolds (called)
- Seventh — Bagwell (swinging), Howell (swinging), Alou (swinging)
- Eighth — Clark (swinging), Gutierrez (swinging), Ausmus (called)
- Ninth — Bill Spiers (swinging), Bell (swinging)

Kerry opened the game with five straight strikeouts and later had stretches in which he fanned five in a row and seven in a row.

Became just the second pitcher in M.L. history to strike out as many batters as his age ... 17-year-old Cleveland Indians rookie Bob Feller fanned 17 Philadelphia Athletics batters on September 13, 1936.

2013 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

FINAL STANDINGS: The Cubs finished the 2013 regular season with a 66-96 record, fifth in the N.L. Central Division, 31.0-games behind the Cardinals ... it marked the Cubs fourth-straight sub-.500 campaign dating to 2010.

- The Cubs went 31-50 at Wrigley Field ... it marked the first time Chicago lost 50 games at home in a season, and its .383 home winning percentage was the franchise's lowest in a non-strike season.
- Chicago was 35-46 on the road, a 12-win improvement after the team went 23-58 away from the Friendly Confines in 2012.
- The Cubs had a season-high five-game winning streak, May 26-31 ... just prior to that, the team had a season-long six-game skid, May 19-25.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS: Chicago went 30-25 from May 26-July 28, a .545 winning percentage that was fourth-best in the N.L. in that span ... however, Chicago went 18-41 (.305) in its final 59 games beginning July 29.

- The Cubs went nearly .500 against teams outside their division in 2013 at 41-45 while turning in a 25-51 mark against the National League Central, tied for the lowest winning percentage (.329) by any team against its own division in baseball (Houston was 25-51 vs. the A.L. West).
- Chicago was 36-49 (.424) in 85 games decided by two or fewer runs, tied for the seventh-most such games in baseball ... the team was 20-33 (.377) in 53 one-run decisions - the 33 one-run setbacks were fourth-most in the majors.

IT TAKES A VILLAGE: The Cubs used a franchise record 56 players in 2013, surpassing the previous mark of 53 players used in 2012.

- The Cubs used 43 players prior to the All-Star break, including 24 pitchers - both are franchise records ... Chicago's former record of 41 players used prior to the All-Star break was done during the 2000 campaign.
- Prior to using 24 pitchers in 2013, the club had previously utilized 20 pitchers prior to the break during four seasons: 2012, 2011, 2008 and 2005.

HELLO, MY NAME IS _____: The Cubs team that took the field for the season finale in St. Louis looked very different than the club that suited up for Opening Day on April 1.

- Of the 25 players on Chicago's Opening Day roster, less than half – 12 – remained on the active roster at season's end (32 players) ... that left 20 players on the final roster that were not part of the Opening Day roster ... the 13 players no longer on the roster from Opening Day were either traded, outrighted off the 40-man roster or granted their unconditional release.
- Nate Schierholtz was the lone outfielder remaining from the Opening Day roster, while Anthony Rizzo, Starlin Castro and Luis Valbuena remained from the infield (Darwin Barney was on the D.L.) ... catchers Welington Castillo and Dioner Navarro were both with the team all season.
- James Russell and Hector Rondon were the lone remaining relievers (Carlos Villanueva moved to the bullpen, back to the rotation and back again to the bullpen) ... the starting rotation featured Jeff Samardzija, Edwin Jackson and Travis Wood, none of whom missed a start all season.
- Overall, the Cubs saw 33 players make their club debut last season, a franchise record that topped the former mark of 30 players to make their Cubs debut 111 years ago in 1902 ... additionally, the 22 Cubs debuts prior to the All-Star break marked a team record, surpassing 18 in 1949, 1957 and 2000.

NEW FACES: In April of 2013, 14 players made their Cubs debut ... that's the most in a single month in the 98 seasons Chicago has played at Wrigley Field ... the previous high was 13 players making their Cubs debut in both April of 1982 and April of 1995.

- Three starting pitchers made their Cubs debut within the team's first five games of the season: Edwin Jackson, Scott Feldman and Carlos Villanueva ... it was the first time three starting hurlers made their Cubs debut within the first five games of the season since 1949 when Dutch Leonard (first game), Monk Dubiel (third game) and Dewey Adkins (fifth game) did so.

SOMETHING OF QUALITY: The Cubs recorded 91 quality starts in 2013, tied for fifth-most in the National League and 18 more than the 73 quality efforts Cubs starting pitchers recorded in all of 2012 ... in their 91 quality starts in 2013, Cubs pitchers went 42-21 with 28 no-decisions and a 1.96 ERA (134 ER/616.2 IP) ... the team was 13 games above .500 in those 91 games, posting a 52-39 record.

- Travis Wood finished tied for sixth in the majors with 24 quality starts ... that was the most by a Cubs left-handed pitcher since Ken Holtzman had 25 in 1970.

THESE PITCHERS CAN HIT: Cubs pitchers recorded 19 RBI in May, a National League record for a pitching staff in a single month ... the 1940 Detroit Tigers received 20 RBI from their pitchers in 1940.

START ME UP: Cubs starting pitchers posted a 2.97 ERA (41 ER/124.1 IP) through the first 20 games of the season, the first time in 10 years that Cubs starters had a sub-3.00 ERA through the first 20 games (2.72 ERA through 20 games in 2003).

INTERLEAGUE SUMMARY: The Cubs finished interleague play with a 13-7 mark (.650) in 2013, marking the team's first winning season against the A.L. since going 8-4 in 2007 ... the 20 games played and 13 victories against the A.L. are single-season franchise records, as the 13 wins surpass nine victories in 1997, 2001 and 2003 ... Chicago owns a 121-134 (.475) all-time record in interleague play dating to 1997.

- Anthony Rizzo's 21 interleague RBI are tied for the most by any Cub in a single season with Sammy Sosa, who had 21 RBI against the A.L. in 2000 ... Alfonso Soriano's seven interleague homers in 2013 are second-most by a Cub in a single season (Sosa had nine in 2000).

ON THE DOUBLE: Anthony Rizzo (40 doubles) and Nate Schierholtz (32 doubles) became the first Cubs left-handed hitting teammates to each reach 30 doubles in the same season since Jacque Jones (32 doubles) and Juan Pierre (31 doubles) in 2006.

RARE AIR: The Cubs saw their first 25 games of the season decided by four runs or less, a new franchise record ... the previous club record of 21 games to start a season with all contests decided by four runs or less took place 105 years ago in 1908.

- The 25 games to start a season with all contests decided by four runs or less is the second-longest streak in major league history, behind the 1914 Detroit Tigers (33 games).

SAVE ME!: The Cubs had three pitchers record multiple saves in April: Kevin Gregg (four), Kyuji Fujikawa (two) and Carlos Marmol (two) ... in 45 Aprils since the save became an official MLB statistic in 1969, the Cubs for the first time have seen three pitchers record multiple saves within the season's first calendar month.

IN A PINCH? NO PROBLEM: May 3 vs. the Reds, the Cubs became the first N.L. team since 1993 to have at least four pinch-hitters reach safely in one inning when pinch-hitters Dioner Navarro (singled) Dave Sappelt (singled), Scott Hairston (walked) and Cody Ransom (walked) all reached safely in the ninth inning.

© The previous N.L. club to turn the trick was the Atlanta Braves, who had five pinch-hitters reach safely in the seventh inning, September 21, 1993 at Montreal.

WINNING ALL OVER THE PLACE: The Cubs had a unique three-game stretch in which they won in three ballparks: May 26 at Great American Ball Park, May 27 at U.S. Cellular Field and May 29 at Wrigley Field ... it marked the first time since 1946 that the Cubs had at least a three-game winning streak in which each victory was at a different ballpark.

© In 1946, The Cubs beat the Pirates at Wrigley Field on May 12, then beat the Phillies at Shibe Park, May 15 ... May 18, the Cubs beat the Giants at the Polo Grounds, and the next day, the Cubs beat Brooklyn at Braves Field.

SLAMMING GOOD TIME: The Cubs received grand slams in consecutive games (May 30 vs. the White Sox by Travis Wood, and May 31 vs. Arizona by Scott Hairston) for the first time since July 27-28, 1998 in Arizona (both by Sammy Sosa).

© Chicago previously hit grand slams in consecutive games at Wrigley Field, September 15-16, 1972 vs. the Mets (by Jim Hickman and Burt Hooton).

DRAWING A BLANK: The Cubs were shut out in three-straight home games - August 3-4 vs. the Dodgers and August 12 vs. the Reds - for the first time since August 20-21, 1924 vs. the Boston Braves (DH on August 20) and Brooklyn Dodgers.

© All told, the Cubs endured a franchise-record 33-inning scoreless streak at Wrigley Field from the fifth inning of August 2's game vs. the Dodgers through the first inning of August 13's affair vs. the Reds - the streak was snapped by a Nate Schierholtz two-run homer in the second inning.

CHARITABLE CUBS: Chicago Cubs Charities made significant contributions in the community donating more than $2.3 million to Chicago area non-profit organizations in 2013.

© As part of the Ricketts' family mission to participate in the lives of those in the community and to be good neighbors, the Chicago Cubs community efforts reflect an on-going partnership between the Cubs and the people of Chicago ... these efforts include charitable donations, neighborhood protection activities and year-round community service involvement.

© Chicago Cubs Charities and Cubs Care, a fund of the McCormick Foundation, together granted more than $1.1 million to 43 Chicago area non-profit organizations serving those in need ... over the last 12 years, more than $18 million has been donated to deserving organizations through Cubs Care.

© On July 9, Chicago Cubs Charities, through Tom and Laura Ricketts, introduced the inaugural class of Cubs Scholars ... the Cubs Scholars program provides college scholarships to incoming high school seniors who are high achievers with demonstrated need ... five scholars were introduced and they were officially "signed" to the team ... these young men and women will receive $20,000 toward the college of their choice as well as ongoing mentoring and programming through the Cubs College Prep program which includes college counseling and support for 5 years with Chicago Scholars.

© In July, Chicago Cubs Charities launched the Cubs on the Move Fitness Trolley, a program designed to promote physical activity in the inner city ... Cubs players and Laura Ricketts helped teach kids to "play every day" and work in 60 minutes of physical activity. More than 300 children took part during the month of July and finished the program by taking in a game at Wrigley Field.

© Post-season, Chicago Cubs Charities will launch the Diamond Project; a community impact program that will provide grants to build and revitalize baseball fields in the Chicago area.

© Chicago Cubs players and coaches took part in on-field clinics for charitable purposes, spoke to kids at several events, went on more than 10 hospital visits, visited six schools in 2013, and served lunch for active duty military and veterans in partnership with the USO at the at the 2nd Battalion, 24th Marine Base.

© The Cubs were able to bring more than 93,000 underprivileged children and families, veterans, non-profit organizations, children with special needs and volunteers to Wrigley Field over the course of the season through ticket donations.

© The new Cubs Give Back program allowed season ticketholders to donate their tickets to Chicago Cubs Charities who, in turn, worked with Illinois Mentoring Partnership to bring mentor pairs to the ballpark to enjoy a game together benefitting 50 different mentoring programs across the state.

© The Cubs donated more than 7,000 items to charities for fundraising auctions and raffles.

© Cubs associates participated in more than 100 meetings of community organizations and served on the boards of neighborhood associations, chambers of commerce and non-profit groups.

© Cubs fundraising events and donations raised more than $3.3 million in 2013 through the 50/50 Raffle and events such as the third-annual Bricks and Ivy Ball, the Race to Wrigley 5K, Wrigley Field Road Tour, Cubs Convention and Catch in the Confines.

YOU CAN COME HOME AGAIN

Of the more than 1,800 players who have appeared in at least one game for the Cubs, six have had 10-plus year interruptions in their time with the club:

13 years: Roger Bresnahan (1900 ... 1913-1915) and Johnny Moore (1928-1929, 1931-1932 ... 1945)
12 years: Larry Gura (1970-1973 ... 1985) and Dave Martinez (1986-1988 ... 2000)
11 years: Greg Maddux (1986-1992 ... 2004-2006)
10 years: Lonny Frey (1937 ... 1947)

The longest span between homers for the team belongs to Billy Jurges, who went nine years, 22 days between Cubs homers August 2, 1938, through August 24, 1947 (both homers were hit at the Polo Grounds). Jurges was a Cub from 1931-1938 and in 1946-1947.

IF AT FIRST ...

On June 29, 1937, Cubs first baseman Jimmy Collins set a National League record by not having any fielding chances in the Cubs' 11-9 victory over the Cardinals in St. Louis. Left fielder Augie Galan and catcher Gabby Hartnett each had eight of the Cubs' 27 putouts, followed by second baseman Billy Herman (4), shortstop Billy Jurges (3), center fielder Joe Marty (2), starting right fielder Frank Demaree (1) and substitute right fielder Phil Cavarretta (1). Herman had both Cubs assists in the game on force plays at second base.

The only other N.L. first baseman to accomplish that feat was the Cubs' Fred McGriff – on August 15, 2002, vs. Houston. Catchers Todd Hundley (14) and Joe Girardi (3) recorded 17 of the club's 27 putouts via the strikeout route. Shortstop Alex Gonzalez had the Cubs' only assist on a ninth-inning ground out.

KEEPING THE ROTATION TOGETHER

The Cubs utilized as few as seven starters in a campaign as recently as 2004, when the only pitchers to start for the club were Matt Clement, Greg Maddux, Sergio Mitre, Mark Prior, Glendon Rusch, Kerry Wood and Carlos Zambrano.

Since 1900, the club mark for fewest starters in a season is six – set in 1901. During the 19th century, the team utilized as few as two starters in four seasons, most recently during a 98-game 1883 campaign (Larry Corcoran 53 starts, Fred Goldsmith 45 starts).

GRAND SLAM FACTS AND FIGURES

The Cubs have hit 297 grand slams in franchise history, including three in both 2012 and 2013.

The Cubs record for grand slams in a season is nine, recorded in 1929 by Hack Wilson (2), Rogers Hornsby (2), Charlie Grimm (2), Riggs Stephenson, Norman McMillan and Kiki Cuyler. McMillan's roundtripper was of the inside-the-park variety.

The club's first grand slam was hit by pitcher Larry Corcoran on June 20, 1882, off Worcester's Lee Richmond at Chicago's Lakefront Park.

The only Cubs to hit more than two grand slams in one season are Ernie Banks (5 in 1955), Wildfire Schulte (4 in 1911) and Sammy Sosa (3 in 1998). Sosa hit grand slams in back-to-back games July 27-July 28 of that season, becoming the first Cub to accomplish that feat.

On June 3, 1987, the Cubs and Houston Astros combined to hit three grand slams — tying a major league single-game record. Two Cubs hit bases-loaded roundtrippers — Brian Dayett (off Bob Knepper) and Keith Moreland (off Julio Solano). Houston's Billy Hatcher hit a grand slam in the contest off Rick Sutcliffe.

On August 16, 1890, Chicago batters Tom Burns and Malachi Kittridge both connected for fifth-inning grand slams off Pittsburgh's Bill Phillips — for the franchise's only multiple grand slam inning.

SEEING DOUBLE

Since the advent of divisional play in 1969, the Cubs have only had one instance in which starting pitchers struck out 10 batters in three straight games. From May 11-13, 1969, Ken Holtzman (vs. San Francisco), Fergie Jenkins (vs. San Diego) and Dick Selma (vs. San Diego) all went the distance — and struck out 10 batters apiece — in consecutive Wrigley Field affairs.

PUTTING ON THE HITS

In 2003, the Cubs recorded 20 hits, July 20 at Florida, and 21 on July 21 at Atlanta — marking the first time since the advent of divisional play that the club had back-to-back 20-hit efforts.

CUBS PITCHING FACTS

The Cubs set a team mark in 2013 by utilizing 31 different pitchers.

The club mark for most left-handed pitchers to see mound action in a season is 10 – a figure reached in both 1999 and 2000. Prior to the 1999 campaign, the team record of eight had stood since 1966.

The team mark for most strikeouts by a reliever is 11, set by Dave Hillman during a 7.2-inning relief stint May 28, 1959, against Los Angeles.

The last Cubs position player to take the mound for the Cubs was third baseman Joe Mather, who saw relief action August 27, 2012 vs. Milwaukee.

Since the advent of divisional play in 1969, only two Cubs have recorded saves in their major league debuts: Todd Wellemeyer (5/15/03 @ MIL) and Kyuji Fujikawa (4/1/13 @ PIT).

The last Cubs rookie to hurl consecutive complete games was Rich Hill in 2006 (September 16 vs. Cincinnati, September 22 at Cincinnati).
Hill finished with two complete games in 2006, making him the first Cubs rookie with more than one complete game in a season since Frank Castillo tossed four in 1991.

The best career start record-wise for a Cubs pitcher is 8-0, recorded by King Cole in 1910 and Carlos Silva in 2010. The worst start belongs to Chris Volstad, who began his Cubs career 0-9 in 2012.

On July 17, 1918, Lefty Tyler pitched a Cubs-record 21 innings in a route-going 2-1 win against Philadelphia. He gave up 13 hits and one walk while striking out eight.
Three years earlier, on June 17, 1915, reliever George "Zip" Zabel was called into a game against Brooklyn with two out in the top of the 1st inning at West Side Grounds. He had to pitch 18.1 innings before earning the win, as the Cubs won 4-3 in the 19th inning.

The Cubs' top single-season pitchers' batting marks for:

AVG: .350 ..... Percy Jones (1927)
H: 30 ..... Lon Warneke (1930)
HR: 6 ..... Fergie Jenkins (1971)/ Carlos Zambrano (2006)
RBI: 20 ..... Fergie Jenkins (1971)
SH: 19 .... Ryan Dempster (2008)
SO: 55 ..... Don Cardwell (1961)

GOING THE DISTANCE

The last time Cubs pitchers went the distance in three consecutive contests took place during the 1976 campaign – when Rick Reuschel (September 18), Ray Burris (September 19) and Steve Renko (September 21) did the honors.

The last time the Cubs had three straight complete-game shutouts took place in May 1969. Ken Holtzman started the streak May 11 with an 8-0 victory over San Francisco. Fergie Jenkins then blanked San Diego 2-0 on May 12. Dick Selma finished the stretch with a three-hitter in a 19-0 victory over the Padres May 13.

FAN-TASTIC

On April 9, 2003, at Wrigley Field, the Cubs and Montreal combined for 27 strikeouts and no walks. Mark Prior fanned 12 Montreal batters, while Javier Vazquez (14) and Luis Ayala (1) struck out 15 Cubs.

The 27 strikeouts without a walk were the most in any major league nine-inning game.

The National League record for most strikeouts in a nine-inning game is 30. On May 6, 1998, at Wrigley Field, Kerry Wood fanned 20 Houston batters – while Shane Reynolds struck out 10 Cubs in his 8.0 innings of work.

DIGGING OUT OF A HOLE

No Cubs team has ever overcome being more than 10 games below the .500 mark to finish a campaign at .500 or above. The biggest turnaround was 10 games, accomplished in 1968.

The 1968 club was 10 games under .500 twice, most recently on July 5 (35-45). That team finished the year at 84-78.

In 2007, the club was nine games below .500 at 22-31 and finished eight games above .500 at 85-77 to win the N.L. Central title.

Since 1900, there have been two campaigns in which five Cubs pitchers homered in the same year – in 1937 and 1941. The "hammerin' hurlers":

1937: Roy Parmelee 2, Clay Bryant 1, Curt Davis 1, Bill Lee 1, Charlie Root 1.
1941: Claude Passeau 3, Bill Lee 2, Paul Erickson 1, Vern Olsen 1, Charlie Root 1.

Since 1900, the most home runs hit by Cub pitchers in a season is nine – in 1961 (Don Cardwell 3, Bob Anderson 2, Jack Curtis 2, Glen Hobbie 2).

Carlos Zambrano (23) has hit more homers than any other pitcher in Cubs history – ahead of Fergie Jenkins (13), Claude Passeau (12) and Charlie Root (11). Six other hurlers went deep at least six times.

CUBS HOLD MLB RECORD...

The Cubs hold the major league record for consecutive games played (of at least nine innings) without being no-hit ... entering 2014, Chicago has played 7,663 consecutive contests with at least one hit since last being no-hit, September 9, 1965, by the Dodgers Sandy Koufax.

Since Koufax's perfect game, the Cubs have had 22 one-hitters tossed against them, with the last one occurring July 31, 2012 – when Pittsburgh's A.J. Burnett accomplished the feat at Wrigley Field (Adrian Cardenas collected a two-out, pinch-single to right in the bottom of the eighth inning). The last pitcher to take a no-hitter into the ninth inning against the Cubs was Florida's Alex Fernandez – on April 10, 1997 at Wrigley Field (broken up by a Dave Hansen single).

Entering 2014, the Cubs have gone a major league record 48 full seasons since they were last no-hit, surpassing the mark set by the St. Louis Cardinals from 1920 to 1959. According to the Sporting News Complete Baseball Record Book, the American League record is 44 years, accomplished by the New York Yankees from 1959 to 2002.

HISTORICAL INFORMATION

Highlights In Cubs History

1876: The first game in the history of the Chicago National League franchise took place April 25, as Albert Spalding pitched the first N.L. shutout in the Chicago White Stockings' 4-0 win at Louisville ... Spalding also had the first hit in franchise history, while center fielder Paul Hines scored the first run on a throwing error in the second inning.

HEY NOW, YOU'RE AN ALL-STAR

Ernie Banks was selected to the National League All-Star team 14 times, the highest total for a Cubs player. Ryne Sandberg ranks second in club history with 10 All-Star appearances (nine starts).

The only Cub to earn Most Valuable Player honors was Bill Madlock, who had a game-winning two-run bases-loaded ninth-inning single off the White Sox's Rich Gossage in the 1975 contest. Madlock shared MVP honors with the New York Mets' Jon Matlack.

Seven Cubs batters have hit All-Star home runs, most recently Alfonso Soriano in the 2007 contest off Seattle's J.J. Putz. The others: Augie Galan (1936 off Detroit's Schoolboy Rowe), Hank Sauer (1952 off Cleveland's Bob Lemon), Ernie Banks (1960 off Boston's Bill Monbouquette), George Altman (1961 off Boston's Mike Fornieles), Billy Williams (1964 off Kansas City's John Wyatt) and Andre Dawson (1991 off Boston's Roger Clemens).

Cubs pitchers have earned five All-Star wins — Bob Rush (1952), Larry Jackson (1963), Bruce Sutter (1978 and 1979) and Lee Smith (1987). Cubs relievers have picked up four saves (Lon Warneke in 1936, Don Elston in 1959, Sutter in 1980 and Randy Myers in 1995). Cubs pitchers have suffered four All-Star losses — Bill Lee (1939), Claude Passeau (1941 and 1946) and Johnny Schmitz (1948).

Passeau is the only Cubs pitcher to start in the All-Star Game, taking the loss in the 1946 Midsummer Classic at Boston's Fenway Park.

The youngest Cubs player to be selected to the N.L. All-Star team and appear in the game was Starlin Castro, who was 21 years old at the 2011 Midsummer Classic in Arizona. The youngest Cubs pitcher to appear in an All-Star Game was 23-year-old Carlos Zambrano (2004).

The oldest Cub to play in an All-Star Game was 38-year-old Ernie Banks, who made his 13th and final All-Star appearance in the 1969 Classic in Washington, DC.

Three Cubs managers have guided the N.L. All-Star team — Charlie Grimm (1936 and 1946), Gabby Hartnett (1939) and Dusty Baker (2003).

Three All-Star Games have been played at Wrigley Field — in 1947, in 1962 and in 1990. The American League won all three games by scores of 2-1, 9-4 and 2-0.

BEAR CUBS

The greatest number of players to make their major league debuts in one season for the Cubs is 20 — in 1902. The high number of youngsters that season was one of the primary reasons why the club was nicknamed the "Cubs." With the raid of National League players by American League teams, many N.L. clubs stocked their spring training rosters with young, unproven players. The Chicago Daily News, noting all the youngsters in the Chicago camp, used the nickname "Cubs" for the first time in its March 27, 1902 edition.

1-0 ... 1-0 ... 1-0 ... 1-0

In 1906, the Cubs participated in four-consecutive 1-0 contests. The Cubs beat Cincinnati 1-0 July 1 at Chicago's West Side Grounds, then fell the next day by the same score. The club then swept an Independence Day doubleheader at Pittsburgh by identical 1-0 scores.

That was part of the Cubs' 1906 club-record stretch of playing nine straight one-run contests June 24-July 4.

PHILLING UP THE SCOREBOARD

On August 25, 1922, the Cubs topped Philadelphia 26-23 at Cubs Park in the highest-scoring game in major league history. The teams combined for 51 hits, 23 walks and 25 men left-on-base. A 10-run second inning followed by a 14-run outburst in the fourth helped the Cubs build a 25-6 lead. Philadelphia fought back and had the bases full when the last out was recorded in the ninth inning.

On May 17, 1979, Dave Kingman hit three homers and drove in six runs, but Philadelphia's Mike Schmidt answered with two homers – including the game-winner in the 10th – to give the Phillies a 23-22 victory in baseball's highest-scoring game since the 1922 affair. The Cubs had trailed 21-9, but rallied and tied the score in the eighth.

THE SANDBERG GAME

On June 23, 1984, Ryne Sandberg went 5-for-6 with two late-inning dramatic homers and seven RBI in the Cubs' 11-inning 12-11 victory over St. Louis.

Sandberg hit a solo homer off the Cardinals' Bruce Sutter in the bottom of the ninth inning to knot the game at 9-9. Then, after St. Louis tallied twice in the top of the 10th, Sandberg once again knotted the game — this time with a two-run shot off Sutter. Following his game-tying homers, the Cubs won it on Dave Owen's RBI single.

"The Sandberg Game" overshadowed the performance of the Cardinals' Willie McGee, who hit for the cycle.

PINCHED BY A PITCHER

On August 11, 2001, San Francisco's Livan Hernandez was the last pitcher to have a four-hit game against the Cubs — going 4-for-4 with a solo homer and three RBI.

On August 8, 2000, Los Angeles pitcher Darren Dreifort hit a pair of homers in a 7-5 victory over the Cubs at Dodger Stadium. Dreifort was just the fourth pitcher to record a multi-homer game against the Cubs, joining Cincinnati's Frank Foreman (July 4, 1895), the Boston Braves' Jim Tobin — who hit three homers (May 13, 1942) — and the New York Mets' Walt Terrell (August 6, 1983).

1984 NLCS: Padres Defeated Cubs 3-2

The Cubs advanced into post-season play for the first time since 1945 after winning the National League Eastern Division title with a 96-65 record ... the Cubs then won the first two games of the NLCS at Wrigley Field before dropping the final three contests in San Diego.

- © The Cubs hit five homers and had 16 hits in routing the Padres 13-0 in Game One, as winning pitcher Rick Sutcliffe allowed two hits in 7.0 innings and homered ... behind Steve Trout, the Cubs then won the second game 4-2.
- © San Diego routed the Cubs in Game Three, then won the fourth game 7-5 behind Steve Garvey's five-RBI contest.
- © In the decisive fifth game, Leon Durham's two-run homer and Jody Davis' solo shot gave the Cubs a 3-0 lead entering the bottom of the sixth inning ... San Diego, though, scored twice in the sixth and four times in the seventh to advance to the World Series.

Atlanta pitching proved to be too much for the Cubs, who needed a Wild Card tie-breaker contest against San Francisco to qualify for the postseason.

- © The Cubs were held to just four runs, 17 hits and a .181 average ... Braves pitchers recorded a 1.29 ERA.
- © Cubs pitchers limited Atlanta's offense to just a .228 average ... Cubs starters gave up only four earned runs in 20.0 innings.
- © Two days before the start of the Division Series – on September 28 at Wrigley Field – the Cubs earned a spot in the playoffs as the National League's Wild Card team after beating San Francisco 5-3 ... Steve Trachsel took a no-hitter into the sixth inning, Gary Gaetti belted a two-run homer, pinch-hitter Matt Mieske singled in two runs and Rod Beck picked up the save as the Cubs advanced to the playoffs.

For the first time since winning the 1908 World Series, the Cubs were victorious in a postseason series ... as such, the Cubs qualified for their first trip to the National League Championship Series since 1989.

- © The affair was only the third "final and decisive" post-season contest in Cubs history ... the club had dropped Game Seven of the 1945 World Series to Detroit and Game Five of the 1984 NLCS to San Diego.
- © With two victories, Kerry Wood became the first Cub to pick up a pair of wins in a post-season series since Hank Borowy in the 1945 World Series ... he fanned 18 batters in the two starts, surpassing the club-record 17 recorded by Hippo Vaughn in the 1918 World Series ... in the series-opening 4-2 victory, he had two hits – and drove in the game-winning run with a two-run double in the Cubs four-run sixth inning.
- © In Game Three (a 3-1 Cubs win), Mark Prior went the distance – allowing two hits while fanning seven ... he was the first Cubs pitcher to throw a complete game in the postseason since Claude Passeau accomplished the feat in Game Three of the 1945 World Series ... in the process, he also became the second hurler to throw a two-hitter in a Division Series affair, joining Nolan Ryan (October 6, 1981).

2003 NLCS: Marlins Defeated Cubs 4-3

Five outs – that's all that stood between the Cubs 3-0 lead in Game Six and their first trip to the Fall Classic since 1945 ... before two of those outs could be recorded, Florida stunned the Cubs with an eight-run eighth-inning rally.

- By the time the fateful eighth was over, the Marlins had sent 12 batters to the plate ... the eight runs were the most in an NLCS inning since St. Louis plated nine in the second inning October 13, 1985, against Los Angeles.
- There was another day for the Cubs, however ... in Game Seven, they found themselves down 3-0 early before rallying to tie the score in the bottom of the second – including a two-run shot by Kerry Wood ... his roundtripper was just the fourth by a pitcher in NLCS history – and the first since the Cubs Rick Sutcliffe went deep in Game One of the 1984 NLCS vs. San Diego ... the Cubs then went ahead 5-3 in the third inning on Moises Alou's two-run homer ... from that point, though, the Cubs were held to just one hit – a Troy O'Leary pinch homer in the seventh off Josh Beckett – as the Marlins pushed across six runs from the fifth through seventh innings.
- In the process, the Marlins became the fourth team in League Championship Series history to overcome a three-games-to-one deficit in advancing to the World Series.

The last time the Cubs won consecutive contests with walkoff homers took place September 12-September 13, 1998, when Orlando Merced and Mark Grace hit game-ending shots against Milwaukee.

2007 NLDS: Diamondbacks Defeated Cubs 3-0

SERIES NUMBERS
Cubs Batting: .194, 3 doubles, 1 homer

In the team's first post-season appearance since 2003, the Cubs were swept by the Arizona Diamondbacks, three-games-to-none, in the National League Division Series ... Chicago batted just .194 (19-for-98) in the series with six runs scored ... Chicago batted just .087 (2-for-23) with runners in scoring position while Geovany Soto hit the club's lone home run - a two-run blast in Game Two off Arizona's Doug Davis.

- Soto's long ball made him just the second Cubs rookie to ever homer in a post-season contest ... previously, Cubs rookie Frank Demaree homered off the Yankees Johnny Allen on October 2, 1932, in the fourth game of the 1932 World Series at Wrigley Field..
- The Cubs dropped Game One, 4-1, as Carlos Zambrano went up against Arizona's Brandon Webb ... the game was tied 1-1 before the Diamondbacks scored two runs off Carlos Marmol in the seventh.
- Chicago enjoyed its only lead of the series when Soto's two-run homer in the second inning of Game Two at Chase Field gave the Cubs an early 2-0 ... Arizona rebounded for four runs in the bottom half of the inning and would hold the lead for the remainder of the game.
- In Game Three, the Diamondbacks touched Rich Hill for three runs in 3.0 innings of work as Chicago went 0-for-9 with runners in scoring position.

After leading the National League with 97 wins, the Cubs were swept out of the National League Division Series, three-games-to-none, for the second straight season ... Chicago starters compiled a 5.87 ERA (10 ER/15.1 IP) ... Ryan Dempster issued a career-high seven free passes in Game One's 7-2 setback.

- Derrek Lee extended his post-season hitting streak to six games with a 3-for-4 Game Three performance ... hit at a .545 clip (6-for-11) with three doubles and two runs scored on the series.
- Mark DeRosa gave the Cubs their only lead of the series with a one-out, two-run homer in the second inning of Game One ... the Dodgers responded with seven unanswered runs, highlighted by James Loney's fifth-inning grand slam.
- Carlos Zambrano struggled in Game Two, surrendering seven runs (three earned) in the Dodgers' 10-3 victory ... Los Angeles posted five runs in the second frame and never looked back ... the Cubs committed four errors in the game, one-shy of matching their post-season record (5).
- A two-run double by Loney in the first inning proved to be all the offense the Dodgers needed in Game Three ... pinch-hitter Daryle Ward singled in Lee for the Cubs lone run in the 3-1 loss.

HOOTON HOLLERIN'

The only Cubs draft selection to make his professional debut with the major league club was Burt Hooton – the club's 1st-round pick (and second overall selection) in the secondary phase of the June 1971 draft. Hooton made his debut on June 17, 1971, vs. Steve Carlton and the St. Louis Cardinals (and did not figure in the decision in the Cubs' 7-6 win) before being sent to the minors.

SPRING INFORMATION

Mesa — Cubs Park

Spring Training 2014 will mark the Cubs first year at their new complex in Mesa, Ariz., highlighted by Cubs Park - a 15,000-capacity ballpark ... the complex, located by the 101 and 202 interchange, will house both the Cubs major league and minor league spring operations, and will be utilized year-round by the organization.

© The Cubs new Spring Training complex consists of Cubs Park, modern practice fields, a world-class workout and training facility, as well as offices and clubhouse spaces ... the campus is spread over 142 acres.

© This will mark the Cubs 36th-consecutive Spring Training in Mesa ... Chicago spent the previous 17 Cactus League seasons at HoHoKam Stadium and Fitch Park.

© Mesa is the second-largest city in the Phoenix metropolitan area and the third-largest city in Arizona ... Mesa is located southeast of Phoenix and Scottsdale.

- With a population of more than 440,000, Mesa ranks as one of the fastest growing cities in the United States (among those with populations of at least 200,000) and the 38th-largest city in the country — bigger than Atlanta and Miami.
- Mesa was founded in January 1878 and was incorporated in July 1883 ... the area of the city is 128 square miles.

© The telephone number for the Mesa Convention and Visitors Bureau is 1-800-283-MESA.

In 2010, Mesa voters approved $84 million to construct a baseball stadium, training and practice facility in Mesa, Ariz. for the Chicago Cubs ... the city contributed $15 million for related infrastructure work, and as part of the agreement with the City of Mesa, the Chicago Cubs will commit their Spring Training games to the site for the next 30 years.

© The new Cubs Park has a seating capacity of 15,000, nearly 2,000 more than HoHoKam Stadium ... the ballpark features a viewing area in left field called EIGHTEEN I 76, a third and first base party deck area, a kids area, a 120-person theatre in the Cubs Clubhouse and a multi-purpose plaza area.

© The park dimensions are:

360 feet down the left field line
366 feet to left center power alley
410 feet to straight-away center field
398 feet down the right field line
398 feet to right center power alley
